Code of Conduct at EFIC Virtual Pain Educational Summit

The European Pain Federation EFIC® events aim to provide a respectful, harassment-free and inclusive environment for all participants, regardless of gender identity, sexual orientation, disability, appearance, ethnicity, race, national origin, age or religion.

Online behaviour during the EFIC Virtual Pain Educational Summit

The Summit provides various forms of online interaction between attendees and between attendees and faculty. All attendees, including speakers, exhibitors, media and staff, and other participants are expected to behave with integrity and respect towards other delegates attending or involved with the EFIC Virtual Pain Educational Summit. Unacceptable behaviour will not be tolerated during any portion of the Virtual Summit.

Unacceptable behaviour includes but is not limited to:

Harassment

- All communication, be it verbal or electronic, must be carried out in a respectful and polite manner
- Insults based on gender, gender identity, sexual orientation, disability, physical appearance, body size, ethnicity, race, age, religion, political affiliation
- The production or non-consensual sharing of harassing non-consensual photography or unwanted recording, including sexual images in public spaces
- Sustained disruption of talks, sessions or other events
- Live Q&A's will be moderated. Attendees are expected to respect the choices of the session chairs in selecting questions or comments, managing session times, etc.

Use of Camera and Video

Any recording, filming, photography, screenshots or other capturing of presentations, live Q&A's, direct or indirect interactions or electronic messaging with other attendees is prohibited.

Social Media

Open and respectful discussions on social media and blogging platforms are encouraged. Attendees are requested to not post images or video online without obtaining appropriate permission. Participants are requested to respect any request from an author not to disseminate the contents of their presentation.
